Crinkle Collective Inventory Statement - Ending 7/31/25

Bark bark! It's time for another crinkle count! While we're "fashionably late" (lolz) getting this posted, our diapers have been right on time—supporting both community needs and some seriously fun summer adventures.

Since our last update, we've had a few events (including our big Summer Pamps Out) that brought out the wagging tails, big smiles, and of course... plenty of padding! As a result, you'll see some shifts in our ABDL event inventory, reflecting the love and usage that comes with gathering together.

This inventory snapshot goes through July 31, 2025, and—just like before—it's part of our commitment to transparency, community trust, and celebrating all the ways your contributions help our pack thrive.

Got questions, want to help stock the diaper den, or just wanna say hi? Visit us at crinklecollective.org!
