Crinkle Collective Inventory Statement - Ending 3/31/25

Brrrr! The chilly months are behind us, and springtime waddles are in full swing! As we shake off the frost and gear up for warmer adventures, we're keeping things transparent with a fresh look at our Q1 inventory.

You'll notice some of our event diapers are still hangin' out in the count since January—don't worry, they're not collecting dust! We've been holding onto them for our upcoming April Zoo Trip and the big Pamps Out Campout in May. Think of it like a crinkly picnic basket waiting to be opened!

This document helps show how all contributions are being used to support both community members in need and the super fun events we all love.

If you've got questions, want to help out, or just feel like peeking in on the magic, visit crinklecollective.org
